

Agreement for the early completion of the LIMS program
Training Program of Leader for Integrated Medical System for Fruitful Healthy-Longevity
Society

15 December, 2016

Approved by the program committee

Last revised: 1 October 2019

(Purpose)

1. This is an agreement to set the requirements for the early completion of the Training Program of Leaders for Integrated Medical System for Fruitful Healthy-Longevity Society (hereinafter called “LIMS program”)

(Application)

2. Students who wish to apply for early completion of the LIMS program must submit the following documents at the same time as starting the early completion procedure at their graduate school.
 - (1) Application for early completion of the LIMS program (Form 1)
 - (2) Instructions document from the Academic Supervisor (Form 2)

(Assessment)

3. The research activities and earned course credits of the student will be assessed as follows at the LIMS Final Screening Committee meeting:
 - Completed all LIMS compulsory courses

(Submission)

4. Those who have passed the above assessment will be required to submit a doctoral dissertation at their graduate school, as well as all necessary documents in accordance with the guideline on LIMS Final Screening and Certification.

Note

- This agreement has been in force since 15 December , 2016.
- Addition of one committee member may be allowed when selecting the final screening committee.